

MAHENDRA KUMAR

Mahendra Kumar is a Nursing veteran with more than 13 years of professional experience in teaching, management and administration presently working as Professor cum Principal at Mahatma Gandhi College of Nursing, Rajasthan. As a former Vice- Principal at Savitribai Phule College of Nursing, Kolhapur (MH) worked for 6 years. He places a high value on Evidence based practice and development of Nursing Professionals. He assumed many key roles and responsibilities at various apex bodies. He has been member of Inspection panel, moderator and examiner at Maharashtra University of Health Sciences, Nashik (MH), Rajasthan University of Health Science, Jaipur.

As a certified Professional in clinical and continuing Nursing education he has published a variety of abstracts and is member of editorial board at various National and International Journals. He received his Bachelor degree in Nursing from The TN MGR Medical University, Chennai in 2004, Masters Degree in Nursing at Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences, Bangalore in 2009 and pursuing Ph. D Nursing.